TOPSHOP fashionable bike route no.2 LONDON

LONDON

1 - Columbia Rd flower market
What better way to while away a Sunday than buying a bloom or five from this famous flower market.
Columbia Road, E2.

2 - The Black Tulip
This florist also sells perfume. Mmm.
28 Exmouth Market, Clerkenwell. EC1.

3 - Scarlet and Violet
Flowers, bric a brac and antiques all with a floral/birds and bees theme. Officially the most beautiful flower shop in the whole world.
76 Chamberlayne Road. NW10.

4 - Garden Gate
Pub near Belsize park with a lovely garden. Pets welcome!
14 South End Rd. NW3.

5 - Notting Hill farmers market
A very smart market on Saturday mornings, located in the car park behind Waterstones.
Access via Kensington Place. W8

6 - Marylebone farmers market
The largest farmers market in London, and a great place for Sunday morning bacon sarnies.
Cramer St car park off Marylebone High Street, W1.

7 - Borough Market
Behind the Tate Modern is a large stretch of grass that is always deserted. Great for secret picnics with your Borough market buys.
London Bridge. SE1.

8 - Hyde Park
Take your swimming togs and go for a splash in the Serpentine Lido. W2.

9 - St James Park
Wave to the pelicans as you pedal towards Buckingham Palace for tea with the queen. SW1.

10 - Regents Park
Take a rowing boat and drift off en route to nearby Topshop! NW1.

11 - Kew Gardens
Cycle along the River Thames from central London and you will eventually reach Kew Gardens. TW9.

12 - Richmond Park
The best place in London to cycle all the way round with a kite attached to your mudguard! TW10.

13 - The Museum of Garden History
Visit a secret 17th century garden in the grounds of this museum.
Lambeth Palace Rd, SE1.

14 - The Chelsea Physic Garden
This secret garden founded in 1673 is home to over 5000 species. A stone's throw from the Kings Road. SW3.

15 - LIDO, London Fields
This is the place for outdoor paddling. Also the coolest park for daytime partying, looks like the remnants of Boombox on a hot Sunday afternoon. Next to the Broadway Market so also great for fashion and food. E8.

16 - Street Art Exhibition
Tate Modern (outside)
Cultivate your inner culture vulture here.
Bankside. SE1.

17 - Sunday Up Market
Not just bagels any more… the market here rocks!
